Congratulations!

As Governor of the State of Illinois, I am pleased to congratulate Renz Addiction Counseling Center on the celebration of your 50th anniversary.

Substance use disorders are certainly a major public health problem that affects Illinoisans of all backgrounds. I commend you for your ongoing work providing a full range of substance abuse programs, as well as your efforts to raise awareness of substance abuse and to promote prevention education.

Renz Addiction Counseling Center and your dedicated staff have touched the lives of countless individuals over the last five decades, providing them with guidance during a difficult time in their lives, and empowering them with the tools to lead successful, productive lives in recovery.

Congratulations again on this milestone. On behalf of the people of Illinois, I offer my best wishes for an enjoyable and memorable celebration and for continued success for Renz Addiction Counseling Center.

Sincerely,
